TEXT COMPREHENSION

A famous Egyptian belly dancer has been put in prison. A court in Cairo, Egypt sentenced Sama el-Masry to three years behind bars. It also fined her 300,000 Egyptian pounds, which is about $18,500. Ms El-Masry was arrested by the police in Egypt in April. Police charged her with immorality after she posted videos on the video-sharing platform TikTok. The videos showed her performing various belly dances. Egypt has recently decided to crack down on social media posts. Egypt's Public Prosecution office accused Ms El-Masry of posting immoral pictures and videos on her social media accounts. It said she was guilty of breaking Egypt's morals because the videos were "sexually suggestive".

Sama el-Masry is 42 years old. As well as being a belly dancer, she is also an actress and starred in three successful movies. One of the movies was about the unfair treatment of female media workers. It created a lot of debate in Egypt about the rights of women in the workplace. She also got a lot of criticism in the past for posting videos on YouTube about her political views. One of the videos mocked former US President Barack Obama for his policy towards Egypt. A women's rights lawyer in Egypt defended Ms El-Masry. She said: "Our conservative society is struggling with technological changes which have created a completely different environment and mindsets."

DIRECT AND INDIRECT SPEECH

- É possível relatar o que foi dito por alguém de duas formas: utilizando o discurso direto (nesse caso apenas transcreve-se o que foi dito) e através do discurso indireto (quando optamos por contar com nossas próprias palavras o que foi dito).

Exs.:

- Discurso direto: Bob said: "I love Mary". (Bob disse: "Eu amo a Mary").
- Discurso indireto: Bob said that he loved Mary. (Bob disse que ele amava a Mary).

- Discurso direto: Tina told me: "I am happy". (Tina disse-me: "Eu estou feliz").
- Discurso indireto: Tina told me that she was happy. (Tina disse-me que estava feliz).

USO:

Usamos "Reported Speech" (discurso indireto) para relatar o que aconteceu em um diálogo, sem que precisemos usar aspas ou fazer citações. O "Reported Speech" faz com que o texto fique mais bonito, organizado e fácil de ler.

Ex.:

Direct Speech: He said: "I don't want to go to school."

(Ele disse: "Eu não quero ir para a escola.")

Reported Speech: He said he didn't want to go to school.

(Ele disse que ele não queria ir para a escola.)

CARACTERÍSTICAS:

DIRECT SPEECH	REPORTED SPEECH
Uso de aspas	Não usa aspas
Grupo de pausa	Sem grupo de pausa
Leitura não dinâmica	Leitura dinâmica
