How to make a salad

By Wikihow

Publicado em: 12/09/2011

1. Firstly, get a bowl, and a head of lettuce. Make sure you wash the lettuce well. Break the leaves off, and rub the lettuce under cold water. Then dry.
2. After that, add some veggies that you like! Wash and chop up a few to throw in with the salad.
Try to mix interesting flavors, such as tomatoes, celery, and herbs (fresh is best).
3. Go even further with some meat. If you want a salad with some extra protein, add some chopped pieces of turkey lunch meat or other meats.
4. Want to keep the salad vegetarian? Add some tofu or seitan chunks, and walnuts are good for any salad, meat-free or not.
5. Then mix all of your ingredients into the bowl and stir together. Add your favorite dressing.
6. Finally, serve. It's the easy, healthy, and tasty snack full of crunchy and chewy ingredients.

TEXT COMPREHENSION

VENTURE

A famous Egyptian belly dancer has been put in prison. A court in Cairo, Egypt sentenced Sama el-Masry to three years behind bars. It also fined her 300,000 Egyptian pounds, which is about $18,500. Ms El-Masry was arrested by the police in Egypt in April. Police charged her with immorality after she posted videos on the video-sharing platform TikTok. The videos showed her performing various belly dances. Egypt has recently decided to crack down on social media posts. Egypt's Public Prosecution office accused Ms El-Masry of posting immoral pictures and videos on her social media accounts. It said she was guilty of breaking Egypt's morals because the videos were "sexually suggestive".

Sama el-Masry is 42 years old. As well as being a belly dancer, she is also an actress and starred in three successful movies. One of the movies was about the unfair treatment of female media workers. It created a lot of debate in Egypt about the rights of women in the workplace. She also got a lot of criticism in the past for posting videos on YouTube about her political views. One of the videos mocked former US President Barack Obama for his policy towards Egypt. A women's rights lawyer in Egypt defended Ms El-Masry. She said: "Our conservative society is struggling with technological changes which have created a completely different environment and mindsets."
